

Gracemere Market Report 15/12/2021

For the last sale for 2021, CQLX Gracemere agents penned 3,247 head, 1,500 head less than last week. Cattle came from a wide area of Central Queensland between Bowen and Gin Gin and west past Clermont. In what was a very mixed yarding, there were several large lines penned with cattle selling well to the usual feeders and processors and an everchanging restocker line up. Values improved in most sections. Yearling steers sold to 906c to return averages from 739c to 840c/kg for those under 280kg. Medium weight pens averaged 588c to 683c/kg to restockers. Yearling heifers topped at 828c, returning averages from 553c to 726c/kg for light weight pens. Medium weight pens averaged from 530c to 646c/kg. Grown steers went to feed to a top of 628c to average from 526c to 602c/kg. Feeders also paid from 490c to 586c/kg average for grown heifers. Those to the trade averaged from 450c to 489c with restockers averaging 596c/kg for theirs. Score 2 cows sold to 420c to restockers to average 405c/kg. Heavy, 4 score cows eased to average 402c/kg. Heavy bulls averaged 336c/kg to processors. A well-bred offering of cows and calves sold from $3,000 to $4,050/unit with one pen of PTIC cows making $2,050/head.
